

We have heard from multiple, reliable employees of the DA's Office that the atmosphere is unprofessional and almost like a "frat house." The picture below was taken from one of the offices in the District Attorney's Office.